KFOC/NBHRF-KRESCENT Post-Doctoral Fellowship

Requirements Guide

The KRESCENT Program Post- Doctoral Fellowships is supported by the NBHRF and The Kidney Foundation of Canada (KFOC)

The New Brunswick Health Research Foundation (NBHRF) and the Kidney Foundation of Canada (KFOC) are pleased to offer the following opportunity:

The KRESCENT program Post –Doctoral Fellowship is an “in-training” award intended for applicants with a PhD, MD or equivalent degree. The objective is to attract and foster young investigators to initiate and/or continue training in kidney research. The competition welcomes applications for Post-Doctoral Fellowships relevant to kidney research in all four major research themes: clinical, biomedical, health services and population health. The 2012-2017 Awards Competitions are expected to fund awards to the following maximum: MD - $65,000/year, PhD - $55,000/year. The duration of the Post-Doctoral Fellowship will be either two or three years, preference may be given to 3 year applications. The maximum period of support at the post-doctoral level is three years.

Eligibility

To be eligible, the applicant:

- Must be supervised by a faculty member at a New Brunswick University or Institute
- Must be enrolled in postdoctoral training and a New Brunswick institution and be conducting kidney research
- Must be a Canadian citizen or permanent resident of Canada

Application Process

Candidates must apply to the KFOC KRESCENT Program regular research grants competition. Candidates must also notify NBHRF of their KRESCENT application by email and attach all documents and materials submitted to the regular KRESCENT competition.
